"The 50,000+ children who benefit from the Saturday Night Alive auction will long remember the thrill of seeing someone reach into their soul to express surprise, sadness and joy," states Auction Chair, Susan Kiely. "We have gathered auction items which will appeal to a wide variety of bidders. This is an opportunity to buy the trip that you have always wanted to take, the piece of art which will grace your home's décor or the fur that will keep you well dressed and warm."

Colorado State Bank and Trust is proud to partner with The Denver Center for the Performing Arts for the second year as the Saturday Night Alive auction sponsor. Bill Sullivan, President and CEO of Colorado State Bank and Trust, adds, "It's a fantastic way to celebrate the wonderful contributions of the DCPA to the rich cultural life of our city, state and region, and of course, it benefits the young people in our communities."

Saturday Night Alive regularly raises more than $650,000 to support The Denver Center's extensive educational programs, which reach more than 50,000 students. Over the past three decades, an estimated $14 million has helped the Center provide theatre programs to more than 1 million children — a testament to the volunteers, donors, sponsors and attendees who have made this event a success.

Jamie Angelich chairs the event with corporate chair Mimi Roberson. Event sponsors include: Colorado State Bank & Trust, HealthONE, Anschutz Foundation, Epicurean Catering, Molson Coors, United Airlines, Westin Denver Downtown, MDC/Richmond American Homes Foundation and Hyde Park Jewelers.

The Four Tops, originally called the Four Aims, made their first single for Chess in 1956, and spent seven years on the road until Motown's Berry Gordy Jr. signed them. Their first hit, "Baby I Need Your Loving" in 1964, made them stars followed with hits including "I Can't Help Myself (Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch)" and "Ain't No Woman (Like The One I've Got)." In 1990, with 24 Top 40 pop hits to their credit, The Four Tops were inducted into the Rock 'n' Roll Hall Of Fame.

For more than 40 years, The Temptations have prospered, propelling popular music with a series of smash hits, and sold-out performances throughout the world. "The Way You Do the Things You Do" turned the guys into stars followed by an avalanche of hits including "My Girl," "Since I Lost My Baby," "Get Ready," "Ain't Too Proud to Beg," "I Wish It Would Rain," "I Can't Get Next to You" and "Papa Was a Rolling Stone."

Saturday Night Alive is held on Saturday, March 2 in the Helen Bonfils Theatre Complex at Speer & Arapahoe. For more information on the sold-out event call 303.446.4815 or visit www.denvercenter.org/sna.

Patrons not able to attend the event may place a maximum bid on the auction items by 5pm on February 28 by calling 303.446.4815. Click here to view the auction book online
